

Merry Christmas

from the Forrest Public Library

December Events

Due to our limitations with COVID we will continue with our social distanced events that will run the entire month of December. Stop by any day at anytime. Please follow COVID guidelines and use our hand sanitizing station when entering our building.

Adult Christmas Book Event

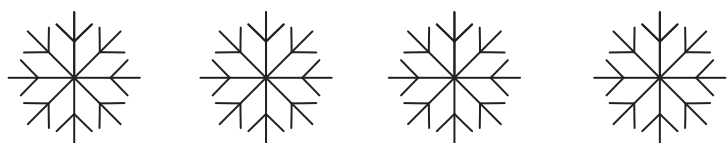

Choose a wrapped Christmas book from our display, check it out and enjoy! We will have a variety of Christmas books wrapped up and ready for selection.

Gingerbread Fun for Kids

Come pick up a Gingerbread House Placemat craft. Take it home, create your design and use your placemat for Christmas.

Somewhere hidden in our library is a Gingerbread Man. Spot him and take home a prize!

Both of these children's events will be while supplies last

Patron Services

Please help us better serve you. Check out our new website. www.forrestlibrary.com

Next time you stop in to visit us please ask about your pin number. Setting up a pin allows you to utilize our services. On our website you can enter your library card number and pin for our Online Catalog. In the catalog, you can browse books or place them on hold for check out. You also need you pin for your Axis 360 account. Axis 360 is our digital platform for ebooks and audiobooks. Both of these services are free for our patrons.

In the event that we need to close and offer curbside pick up for our patrons, you must have your pin number.

Did you Know??

We have a Young Adult Room. The books in this room are suitable for anyone 14 or older. Help us add to it- suggestions are welcome!
