Calling all kids kindergarten and below!

September 9th is National Teddy Bear Day. Bring your teddy bear and stop by and see us at the library. We will have a special selection of books set aside for you and a take home gift.

September 22nd is National Elephant Day. Stop in and see our selection of Elephant picture books and put together or take home an elephant hat craft.

Changes at the Forrest Public Library

We are very grateful that we have been able to make some recent updates to the library. If you haven't been in to see us come by and check them out! We have painted, updated the men's restroom, created at Young Adult space, gotten a new roof, recovered our church pews and rearranged a bit. It's been a busy few months:)

Come check out some of our new children's books! This is just a few we have added to our selection.

Graphic Novels-Cinderella and Rapunzel

Super Heroes-Batman and the the Missing Punch Line
Flash and the Storm of the Century

New Series--Girls Survive We have 4 of the books:

Maribel Versus the Volcano: A Mt. St. Helens Story

Tara and the Towering Wave: An Indian Ocean Tsunami Story

Leah Braves the Flood: A Great Molasses Flood Story

Rebecca Rides for Freedom: An American Revolution Story

Picture Books-Follow Me, Little Fox

The Hair of Zoe Fleefenbach Goes to School

Wishing for a Dragon

As our big kids head back to school don't forget to enroll your 5 and under kids in our 1000 Books Before Kindergarten program!

We are working on getting our Axis 360 and online catalog updated. Please be patient and let us know how we can assist you.
